APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Museum is a progressive non-profit organisation, operated solely by Volunteers. It offers a friendly atmosphere and the comradeship of like minded individuals to its members.

Membership is open to any interested person and is based on the needs of the Museum, subject to the approval of the Committee. If your application is refused, it will remain on file for re-assessment by the Committee if/when circumstances and Museum requirements change. Re-application is therefore not necessary.

Two levels of membership are may be available to applicants: Ordinary (Full) membership and FOM membership (Friend of the Museum). Both have certain requirements and benefits.

Both membership categories are subject to confirmation of membership at the Committee's discretion after the applicant satisfactorily serves a six (6) months probationary period.
